Want to up your Instagram game or get photos of a memorable occasion but don't have a photographer to take the shots? Well, SweetEscape might be your solution

SweetEscape is a photo service that connects holiday-goers with photographers at their destination, turning your vacations into beautiful photos you can treasure for a lifetime. Choose from a network of 2000+ local hand-picked photographers in 400+ cities around the world.

It's like having a personal photographer following you around and capturing the most intimate memories with the best backdrops. They will not only take beautiful pictures but also point out the secret places and best spots in that particular destination.

SweetEscape photography sessions are extremely easy to organise. You pick the destination, time and place, and plan the session with the SweetEscape team. Once booked, you will be given one of their talented photographers, who will get in touch with you to discuss all the details before the shoot. After the shoot, within three days, the professional editing team will color edit 100+ photos, out of which you can choose and download 40 photos.

I had the chance to experience SweetEscape first hand in Bali when I was staying at Villa 1880. The shoot was done in two hours and my photographer Marcel Aditya @simarcell was very professional and was quick to adapt to the changing weather conditions too.

A link to download all the photos was sent to me the following day. This also makes it easier if you are feeling the pressure of having to post on Instagram from your current destination.

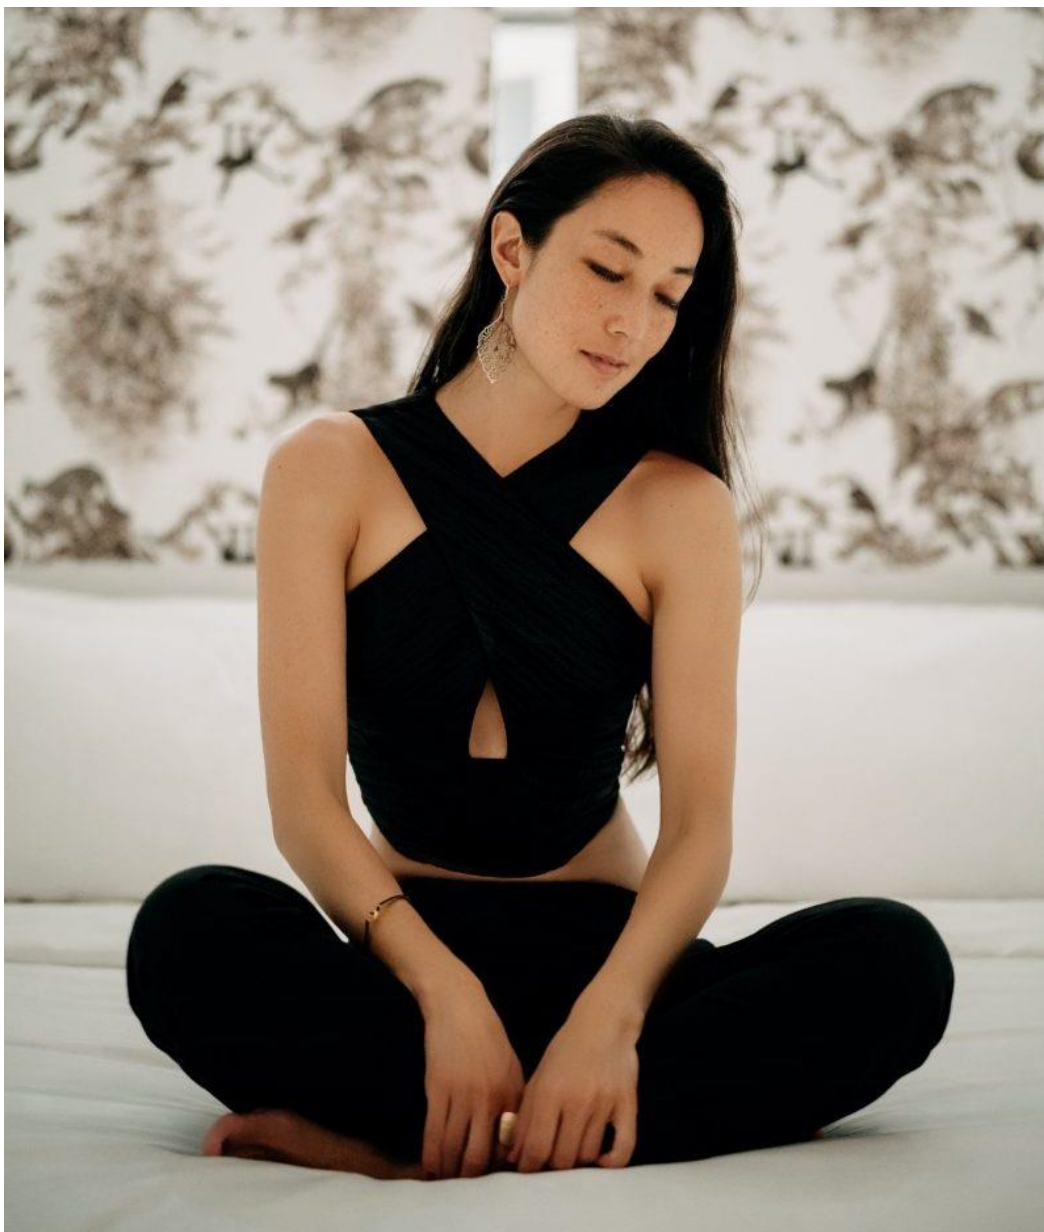

SweetEscape is a great and easy solution for solo travellers or couples who want to remember their vacation without breaking the bank. No more worrying about how to capture a candid moment or finding the most secluded photo spots in a destination unfamiliar to you. SweetEscape takes care of that for you.

A session with SweetEscape starts at US$300 for 2 hours.
